

AENT

Minutes of Meeting

Thursday 10th December 2020 at 4.30pm at the Trailer Boat Club,
Darwin

Present: Sam Galletly, Lucy Found, Korin Lesh, Veronica Hodges, Fernanda Dupal, Amanda Rains, Colleen McDade-Broer, Jane Kennedy

Apologies: Marianne Foster, Alison Dowell

Agenda Items

- Member's exhibition at DVA
  - Proposed Date 7th May 2021. We will follow through with this date. Maybe email DVA to put this date forward.
  - Theme- "Recovery we all agree to go with this.
  - Stickers- We will continue to go with this. It was popular with remote schools and a great way to engage with them. We can write it into the PTANT grant. It doesn't have to be a money making activity. We could give them away at the Festival of Teaching
- Postcards- Not many left but will give dates and reminder email to get them in.
- Workshops 2021-
  - Durack screen printing (Elizabeth Martin) - We can look for dates early next year. Term 1? Could there be another workshop which focuses on making our own screens?

Other printmaking options- Tarzan or Matts Uden?
  - Veronica can offer Gelli printing. Workshop this Saturday through Crafty Divas at 2.30.
<https://www.craftydivas.com.au/craft-class-saturday>
  - John from OXLADES – Visiting Darwin next week
  - Jasmine Jan- Her workshops are good for application to classroom
  - CDU- Workshops were great. Perhaps the Photoshop and Illustrator workshops could have been separated as there was a lot of information.

- Gerald Clapham's Ceramics classes- These are fantastic, particularly the slab tiles
- Critical Thinking in the Arts- in the Gallery- We can run Visible Thinking Strategies at MAGNT or NCCCA.

- Studio Thinking Resources

We can learn more about 'Critical Thinking' strategies by offering to members one of two related books and host a linked professional Book club event:

- Studio Thinking From the Start (Primary & Middle Years focused)
- Studio Thinking2 (Senior focused)

We could run workshops around these either in the gallery or during the Festival of Teaching.

- Festival of Teaching- 28-29th August 2021

- PTANT- Awards Night.

Could be get hold of photographs of the evening to post on our website. Jane K can follow up with Andrea or Steve from PTANT

- EXIT Arts

- Award sponsorship. We have agreed to go ahead with this with our funds pool.
- Award selection. Lucy Found is happy to nominate to be on selection panel. We need one other person who hasn't taught any of the students at a senior level.

- Finances for end of year

- We need to pay our book keeper- (Korin's Mum) Proposed- Fernanda Seconded- Jane
- We need to acquit the money we have. PTANT has discussed the matter and is offering an extension of the 2020 grant acquittals until the end of Term 1 2020.
- Ideas for acquittal
  - - Art of Education subscription
  - Developing website
  - Studio Thinking Resources
- Associations with funds still to acquit may use Term 1 2021 to spend those funds.

- Australian Curriculum Reference groups- Arts

A very valuable Professional Learning experience. Wonderful opportunity to have input and meet other arts educators from across the country. – Lucy

An opportunity to streamline the arts curriculum. Discussion has been around clarification of Achievement Standards, Content Descriptors, Elaborations, Viewpoints without losing the rigor.

- Web Resources- Out of the Curriculum Reference group- there are many ideas that can inform our resources from the discussion in the teacher's Reference Group- Arts meetings

- Artists in Schools- TBA

Meeting Closed 6.00pm