- Speaker- Tim Newth from Traks or Joanna Barrkman this year. Lucy will follow up with both and will ask Tim first.
- Stick it? Is this too hard? Teachers understand process now. It is such a good opportunity. Date- contact Bill Davies.
- Also Ask Bill Davies to do font and text. Font? Lucy will draft n elaboration to go on the wall.
- Food- Budget $400. Too many wraps last time stick to cheese and fruit platters and sushi. Jane and Mandy can purchase food on the day of opening.

2. Workshop ideas for 2022

- Zart workshops- Jane receives their emails. Is there a follow up to Nurturing Creativity this year?
- Other workshop ideas, i.e. Winsome Jobling, Jasmine Jan, Paper bowl workshop at Tactile

Arts Adrienne Wade's Icon workshop, Janey Andrews.....

Would be good to check in with Winsome and she is keen to run more workshops with us.

- CDU Workshops- These were fantastic, Winsome Jobling and Bill Davies. Winsome organised the workshops with Joanna Barrkman.
- Durack arts space is available and free. There is an air-conditioned room option. Possible to book whole space. New arts organiser is very helpful. Space is also free.
- Mandy Tootell happy to run workshops over weekend in Katherine. Katherine regional arts. KRC Jacinta Moonie is executive officer at KRA. Printmaking- there is a press at KRA. Mandy will let us know what she is free to run one. Great excuse to go to Katherine
- Workshops Art Gallery of SA for Visual Arts teachers in the January. This are fantastic according to our friends at VASA. Great opportunity to connect with VASA people. Robyn Carmody and Noelene- VASA secretary is keen to more with us. Worth a trip down together.

3. Art competitions and opportunities

- Lee Point art comp. To raise awareness about Lee Point. Mandy can email teachers but we have to be careful about being politically affiliated.
- Australia Art in Nature Competition. Shared by DCA. Jane has passed on information via email and to schools
- Keith and Florence Payne foundation- Indigenous Art prize. Jane will share when information is made available. This year it will be run with Seabreeze festival.

4. Exit Arts- Lucy- Jane confirmed with Sally Crawford- 9th March. $200 voucher- 1 prize.

Work selection criteria- a bit subjective but look as an art teacher.

5. ACARA- Arts Curriculum Update- Jane

- Roll out of version 9.0, it is looking like it will happen in April. We are still waiting for the minister to approve.
- Work samples- ACARA are asking for teachers to develop new work samples for each learning area/subject. The ACARA work plan is to publish new work samples by the end of 2022, and earlier if possible. They are planning to involve approximately 80 teachers in this first phase of developing new work samples. ACARA will fund each school to enable the teacher to be involved in professional learning.

6. AGM- Next meeting- 17 March 2022

- Thursday 3rd March proposed.
- Changed to Thursday 17th of March
- Will take nominations and changes of positions at AGM.
- Audit documents available in two weeks.
- Could we do it as a workshop or as a virtually?

- Show and share 2-5 mins each. Show?

7. Finances- Korin

- $5173.24 in the bank, minus the $600 for Friends of CDU
- We will also apply for PTANT grant- $2000 governance grant & $10000. Closes week 6.
- Last year we had the PL grant- $10000 and $4000 covid grant

8. Any other Business?

- Resources on line. Let's utilise this. Workshop resources. Thanks Korin for taking us through it. It's pretty user friendly.
