Minutes from the last meeting – agreed and accepted

1. AENT Member's Exhibition at DVA

- Everything came together well.
- Next year theme alter egos?
- Get in early to get a good time. Lynda wants same time- end of term 1
- She said she would slot us in March- April.
- Many liked the opening on the last day of term, even if we were a bit tired and rushed
- Band was great!
- Next meeting we will make a decision re: dates and themes

2. Workshop ideas for 2022

- Workshops on writing units of work- May 24th May. Aim to have resources on line. Template we can all use that's consistent. Can we put this through PL system? Jane can organise it in the PL system so we have a record of our PL. Intention will be to create units of work for our resources page in our website.
- Hannah Van Der Waal, talented artist working in Yirrakala. Painting workshop.
- Wildlife Park. Retreat- Jane will meet with Jaz. Weekend arts retreat. Would be great to have a number of different workshop offerings that are skills based. Textiles and weaving too?
- Dynamic drawing with Tina. Using charcoal
- Arts after dark- opportunities to talk at NCCA.

3. Gallery Partnerships- CDU

- Art educators partnership gives you membership with CDU gallery. Connect them via email to let them know you are a member of AENT. Invites to Opening invites plus workshops & talks
- Workshop with Jacqueline Gribbin - Ian Hance contact. ian.hance@cdu.edu.au
